

INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL REPORTING STANDARDS (IFRS) WORKSHOP THE 29TH OF APRIL 2015 AT THE UMUBANO HOTEL, KIGALI

As part of its mandate, the Institute of Certified Public Accountants of Rwanda (iCPAR) has organized its IFRS 2015 Workshop. This also serves as part of the IFAC Statement of Member /Associates Obligations (SMO) compliance program. iCPAR is currently working towards attaining full IFAC membership.

Our members and stakeholders (general public) in IFRS implementation in our country need to be up-to-date as changes arise to ensure effective compliance. So this workshop is putting together discussions to create more awareness on individual, amended and new standards. The experts in IFRSs will speak.

Why you should attend

This workshop is organized with a view to cover pertinent new elements in IFRS in place today and shows you the future of IFRS:

A: Financial Reporting: IAS 1 Presentation of Financial Statements & IAS 10 Events After the Reporting Period

- IAS 1 Presentation of Financial Statements: companies are coming to issue the financial reporting for publication; this session will enhance the understanding of the current use of IAS 1 by the participants.
- IAS 10 Events after the Reporting Period: there may be the adjustments to be done on the published financial statements therefore this session is preparing the participants to master with confidence the adjusting events & non – adjusting events after the reporting period.

B: Current Exposure Drafts & Briefing on Standards Effective after 2015 Early Adoption Encouraged

This session will bring attention of the participants to the Standards that are in the development phase and will become the IFRS in future. This session will provide insights about the IFRS already in place but their effective dates are after 2015. Guidance will be given on how early adopters may proceed.

C: Amendments & New Standards for 2015 (IAS 19, IAS 27, IAS 28, IFRS 9, IFRS 12, IFRS 15 etc.)

Some of the projects on the amendments and new standards have been concluded, this session will highlight the key amendments of the existing standards as well as the new IFRSs come into force for compliance.
